

INTERNATIONAL DIRECTORY OF PODIATRIC MEDICAL ASSOCIATIONS AND SCHOOLS

Policies and activities concerning international relations are determined by the American Podiatric Medical Association (APMA) through its Board of Trustees and House of Delegates. All international contacts and activities should be communicated through the APMA executive department.

We welcome any and all information about podiatric medical organizations in other countries. Please email Teena Vaughn at tdvaughn@apma.org with any changes or corrections.

Federation Internationale des Podologues (FIP)

The International Federation of Podiatrists is an international organization of podiatry, podology, and chiropody associations. Its member organizations include associations in Belgium, Canada, Denmark, Finland, France, Greece, Great Britain, Hong Kong, Iceland, Ireland, Israel, Italy, Malta, Mexico, New Zealand, Norway, Peru, Portugal, Singapore, South Africa, Sweden, Switzerland, The Netherlands, and the United States.

The Federation is comprised of an Executive Board and several committees including the Articles of Association Committee (AAC), Budget Committee (BC), Liaison Committee for Podiatrists of the European Union (CLPUE), Educational Audit Commission (EAC), Website Committee (IC), International Education and Research Committee (IERC), International Recruitment Committee (IRC), World Foot Health Awareness Month Committee.
