

Sample Recruitment Posts:

No two days are alike in podiatry! Podiatrists treat a variety of patients from pediatrics to geriatrics. Learn more about all the variety within the profession at stepintopodiatry.com.

Why choose just one medical specialty? Podiatry features sub-specialties in sports medicine, dermatology, diabetic wound care and more. Learn more at stepintopodiatry.com.

Podiatric medical students receive highly-specialized training and education at one of the nine exclusive colleges of podiatric medicine. They also take the same general anatomy course as their MD and DO peers! Check out the full list of schools at stepintopodiatry.com.

99% of graduating podiatric medical students are successfully placed in a podiatric residency program where they receive three years of medical and surgical training! This specialized training prepares DPMs to become experts in their field. Take the next step in your medical career and visit stepintopodiatry.com.

Shadowing a DPM Mentor is a great way to learn more about all the variety the profession has to offer! Podiatrists practice in a variety of settings and treat a wide range of conditions of the foot and ankle. Search our Mentor Network today to find a DPM near you at stepintopodiatry.com.

Make a difference in medicine and join the medical community! You've seen the impact a career in medicine has on our lives - consider a career in podiatry and make a difference in patient lives every day. Start preparing now and visit stepintopodiatry.com to learn more.