The APMA Young Physicians’ Institute
October 3–4, 2020

All times shown are EDT.

Saturday, October 3

11 a.m.–1 p.m.
- Building a Practice From Within a Practice – Robert Toomey, DPM
- Tips for Buying Your First Practice – Sara Karamloo, DPM
- Marketing Your Practice in the Time of COVID – Peggy Tresky, MA, APMA Director of Communications & Marketing

1–2:30 p.m.
- Cultural Competency and Leadership – Ella Washington, PhD, Georgetown University

3–5 p.m.
- Job Search Timeline – Calvin Rushing, DPM
- How to be Successful in Residency – Patrick DeHeer, DPM

5–6 p.m.
Q&A with the Certifying Boards
- American Board of Foot and Ankle Surgeons – Michelle Butterworth, DPM
- American Board of Podiatric Medicine

Sunday, October 4

11 a.m.–1 p.m.
- Contract Panel
  o Large and Small Group Practice Perspective – Cheree Eldridge, DPM
  o Hospital-Based Practice Perspective – Rachel Albright, DPM, MPH
  o Employer Perspective – Melissa Lockwood, DPM
- How to Leave a Job – Rebecca Sundling, DPM, MPH

1–2:30 p.m.
- Leveraging Your Emotional Intelligence to Navigate the New Normal – Shayna Humphrey, M.Ed., Vanderbilt University

3–4:30 p.m.
- Employment Contracts 101 – Mark Kopson, Plunkett Cooney
  This session will provide a basic overview of employment contract provisions, such as benefits, non-compete clauses, medical records, and compensation models.

4:30–5:30 p.m.
Podiatric Medical Student Q&A Session with Young Physicians